LAFCU Welcomes New Mortgage Origination Officer

Jim Thelen

LANSING-----LAFCU proudly welcomes mortgage origination officer Jim Thelen.

As LAFCU's primary mortgage officer, Thelen will work directly with LAFCU members to walk them through the mortgage process and stay with them from start to finish, with an emphasis on educating members.

"Jim's dedication and enthusiasm for education-focused member service will make him an invaluable partner for our members as they navigate through their mortgages. LAFCU is thrilled to have him joining our team," said Pat Spyke, LAFCU's senior vice president of marketing.

Thelen has 27 years of experience, with more than 14 years specializing in mortgages and the lending experience. He is also an affiliate member of the Greater Lansing Board of Realtors.

Established in 1936, LAFCU serves over 50,000 members and has over $500 million in assets. LAFCU is a community-chartered credit union. Any person that lives, works, or worships in Ingham, Eaton or Clinton Counties is eligible to join. LAFCU has six full-service branches and offers a complete selection of financial services and products. For more information, please visit LAFCU.com.
